

Board Policy

Code No. 206.1R

PRESIDENT

Procedure for Election of Officers of the Bettendorf Board of Directors

At the first regular meeting following the school board election, Directors of the Bettendorf Board of Education will elect officers.

The President will be elected first followed by the election of the Vice-President.

The following procedure will be used:

The Board Secretary will distribute ballots to be used in nominating a Director for the office of President. The Board Secretary will collect the written ballots and announce those individuals nominated for the office of President.

The Board Secretary will issue another set of ballots. The person receiving four or more votes will be deemed the President. A roll call vote will follow.
