Code No. 505.9

HOMework

The Board of Directors and District/building administration shall encourage the assignment of meaningful homework that supports the curriculum. Homework is defined as extensions, reinforcement, or enrichment of the regular classroom instructional program. Homework may also be work not completed in class.

The amount, length, and type of homework will vary according to the student's grade level, abilities and needs, and the classes and courses. Homework will not necessarily be assigned every day.
