AEA Property

The district received three offers – all are the same at $214,900. The offers are from a developer, the AEA, and the church. The church has the first refusal. The district has two options – sell it to the church or hold on to it. Ryan Fick of Mel Foster suggestion is for the district to sell it. Superintendent Raso's recommendation is to sell it. The church has thirty days to close. Directors agreed to sell it. The next step is to hold a public hearing on the sale of the property.

Directors returned to open session at 10:12 p.m.
