 - Personal information in confidential personnel records of government bodies relating to student employees shall only be released pursuant to the Family Educational Privacy Rights

Act (FERPA.)

Applicant File Records Content

Records on applicants for positions with the school district shall be maintained in the central administration office. The records shall include, but not be limited to:

- Application for employment.
- Resume.
- References.
- Evidence of appropriate license or certificate, if necessary for the position for which the individual applied.
- Affirmative action form, if submitted.

Record Access

Only authorized school officials shall have access to an employee's records without the written consent of the employee. Authorized school officials may include, but not be limited to, the Superintendent, Office of Human Resources, building principal, or Board Secretary. Access to health and medical records is limited to the employee, Superintendent or Director of Human Resources. In the case of medical emergency, the school nurse or other first aid or safety personnel may have access to the employee's health or medical file without the consent of the employee. Board members will generally only have access to an employee's personnel file without the consent of the employee when necessary for the conducting of board business.

Employee Record

All employee records, except payroll and salary records, shall be maintained for a minimum of one year after termination of employment with the District. Applicant records for those who are finalists for positions shall be maintained for a minimum of one year after the position was filled. Payroll and salary records shall be maintained for a minimum of five years after payment.
